

HALL OF DISTINCTION

Nomination Form – 2017-2018 Academic Year

OBJECTIVE

In recognition of the upcoming 50th anniversary of John Abbott College in 2020, the College is establishing a Hall of Distinction. The Hall of Distinction will recognize alumni, former employees, and friends of the College: any person who has contributed to life on campus or to the greater community in a significant way. Other noteworthy people who also make their mark on campus and in society in the future will be considered. Nominees should have sufficient stature and recognition to ensure that their induction into the Hall of Distinction recognizes their contribution and brings credit to John Abbott.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

- ALUMNI must have:
 - attended John Abbott for a minimum of one academic year;
 - maintained good academic standing according to the College's policy on academic standing;
 - been away from the College for at least five years;
 - excelled in a field in some unique or sustained manner, or contributed to John Abbott in a significant manner.
- FORMER EMPLOYEES must have:
 - been away from JAC for at least five years;
 - been employed at JAC for a minimum of ten years of service;
 - made a significant impact on JAC, JAC students and student success over an extended period of time.
- FRIENDS OF JOHN ABBOTT COLLEGE (eg. volunteer, parent, donor) may have:
 - volunteered for the College;
 - held leadership roles for College projects;
 - provided significant support to the College, thereby having an impact on JAC, JAC students and student success.
